

SLIDING AL — National dirt track motorcycle champion Al Gunter of Alhambra will be after Neil Keen, Sammy Tanner and Jack O'Brien in Friday night's AMA action at Ascot Park, Gardena.

Cardinals Capture 1st in National LL Candy Sale Event

The Major Cardinals took first place in the Torrance National Little League candy sale. Second place was Training Pirates, third, Training Colts, fourth, Minor Cubs.

Top team received $75 to go to Disneyland, POP or wherever. Tagging along with the 14 Major Cards will be 6-year-old Jeff Jones "Team Mascot" who sold the most candy on the team at door to door selling.

Selling the most candy was Dana Richardson, Training Pirates, 208 boxes; Billy Mundy, Minor Dodgers, 173 boxes; Robbie Jones, Major Cards, 145, and Bruce Johnson, Major Angels, 144.

Gift certificates went to Jerry Pagel, Minor Cubs; Jeff Jones, Mascot Major Cardinals; Bruce Johnson, Major Angels, and Bobby Casper, Training Mets.

Steele, Drew Aim at Lead In Figure 8

Ben Steele of Gardena and Joe Drew of Lawndale will both be trying to gain control of the number one position in the battle for the 1963 Figure 8 Stock Car racing championships when they meet in this Sunday night's eight event program at Gardena's Ascot Park, 183rd St. at So. Vermont Avenue. Racing begins at 8:30 p.m., preceded by time trials at 7 p.m.

Steele currently is on top in the point race with a 30 point lead over Drew. Steele moved into the number one position last week when he finished third in the 15-lap main event. He will drive the same car, a Chevrolet, that has carried him to three main event wins already this year. He has 690 points to Drew's 660.

Drew, winner of more main events than any other driver, with five triumphs to his credit, was forced out of racing on his last start when rear-end trouble forced his Ford to the sidelines during a heat race. He will be one of the favorites in this week's feature.

Winner of four main events this season is Leon Garrett also of Lawndale. Garrett who is a team-mate to Drew wheels a Ford. He is only 90 points behind Steele, and 60 to the rear of Drew.

Sunday nights racing will be highlighted by a 15-lap main event for the twenty fastest qualifiers of the night.

Tigers Maintain Colt Lead

Tuesday, June 11, the Giants took on the Torrance Colt League-leading Tigers. Bob Sharpe hurled for the Tigers and allowed six hits and one run while only walking two.

Tommy Tomsen pitched for the Giants, he allowed only four hits and walked three. The downfall of the Giants was in the five crucial errors. Bob Sharpe won his third game with no losses, as the Tigers scored, 4-1.

Sunday, Father's Day, in the first game the Angels took on the Giants. Paul Wells hurled for the Giants. The Angels led by Jerry Finke's double and single hopped on Wells for seven hits. Steve Kealey rang up his fourth triumph against one loss as he struck out 13 Giants and allowed only three hits in the Angel's 3-1 victory.

In the night cap the Braves and Tigers renewed their feud. Bill Valles of the Braves struck out 10 Tigers and allowed them only four hits. Paul Romero started for the Tigers and was relieved by Bob Sharpe in the fifth. Sharpe got the loss, as the Braves won, 5-2.

Harbor College Fall Football Schedule Told

Harbor College's fall football schedule was released this week by athletic director Selwyn Yancy. It consists of three practice games and six Western State Conference tilts.

One major change in the schedule this year has all the home games being played on Saturday night. This has been done in an attempt to keep from interfering with local high school games which are usually scheduled on Fridays.

Harbor will be led by new head coach Floyd Rhea, who envisions an upsurge in interest. Rhea has announced two new aides for the coming season. Don Carlucci, formerly head coach at Venice High School, and Ernie Simon of Dodson Junior High School will assist Rhea and his other assistant, Gordon Wells, next season.

The schedule:
September 28 — San Diego C. C. ☆
October 5 — Palomar ☆
October 11 — L. A. State Jr. Var. ☆
October 19 — Pierce ☆
October 26 — Pasadena ☆
November 1 — Los Angeles C. C. ☆
November 9 — Ventura (Home com.) ☆
October 26 — Pasadena ☆
November 15 — Glendale ☆
November 22 — Ormonde ☆
☆ Conference Game
☆ Home Game
All games 8 p.m., except ACC, 3 p.m.

Junior Golf Play Deadline for Entries Nears

Applications from boys and girls of southwest and south bay communities who are planning to compete in the Seventh Annual Western Avenue Junior Golf Tournament, Friday, June 28, at 8 a.m., must be mailed to golf pro Earl Martin, 12009 S. Western Avenue, by June 25, according to Supervisor Kenneth Hahn.

More than 125 young tournament players under 18 years of age are expected to compete in the junior golf classic. Four boys' and two girls' flights are included in the medal play. Trophies will be awarded to winners.

Applications must include the $1 entry fees. The tournament is sponsored by the Western Avenue Men's Golf Club, Cosmopolitan Golf Club and County of Los Angeles Dept. of Parks and Recreation.

Cantrell, Heath Again Fight It Out in CRA Ascot Main

It's the same old story tonight at Ascot Park in Gardena where the roaring California Racing Assn. big cars stage their second 30-lap, eight race speedfest, with the first race starting at 8:30 p.m. — Billy Cantrell and Allen Heath favored.

Qualifying one-lap spins open the program at 7 p.m. The pair of grizzled veterans, both of whom have been around in major auto racing since the late thirties, have proved to be virtually unbeatable at the 183rd and Vermont half-mile banked dirt track thus far this season.

Cantrell, now wheeling the mighty Maxson-Jeffries Offenhauser formerly piloted by A. J. Foyt to the national sprint car championship, has been particularly tough at Ascot, winning three main events, plus one out-of-towner.

Heath, tooling the powerful fuel-injected Vel's Torrance T-Bird, has rung up a pair of main event wins to date, and always finishes up in the money.

Looking down their tailpipes, however, is young and confident Bob Hogle of Buena Park, who is regarded by Ascot followers as the "next Parnelli Jones" and a cinch to gain fame in the future at Indianapolis.

The cocky Hogle is the closest thing to Heath in driving yet seen at Ascot.
